BATES HORTICULTURISTS.

the Admirers of Fruits and Trees Found to Occupy Their Time.

alto K. C. Times. Butler, Mo. Sept. 12 .- For the econd time since the organization the horticultural society held its last meeting south of the river and, as mon the former occasion, the rain narred the pleasure. Levi Chubbock, of Colman's Rural Worla, St. Louis, was in attendance. There was a fine display of pears, grapes and apples, the thirty varieties of the latter fruit being such as would have nade a good showing at any fair in

The society occupied three hours onth the regular programme. The general discussion on orchards and report from Mr. Innis, who has been collecting fruit for exhibit and had recently visited all large orchards in the county, give Bates a fine apple gop this year, notwithstanding the adverse circumstances. The recent storm blew much fruit from the trees but there still remains a large crop, but many apples are below the usual size. The Ben Davis is of merior quality and size, but Grimes Golden and Sunbeams are excellent both in quality and quantity. Peach trees in the south part of the county were reported in fine condition and the feasibility of planting peach orchards will be considered at the society's next meeting.

President Robards addressed the society on "Care to be, exercised in setting trees and in the selection of the varieties adapted to soil and climate, thus saving much time in obtain ILTON. ing a truiting orchards,"

Strawberry vines have been much hou injured by the drouth. They did not put out runners and new plants will be scarce, and extreme care will be needed to preserve the old ones. Some beds have already been plowed them away enjoying themselves. under as worthless.

Raspberries must be cultivated softened by rain. Shaffer's colossal blackcap is one of the strongest growers, but should be kept cut back off in this section.

The Deepest Lake Yet.

A new lake has been discovered in Oregon pronounced by the government surveyors sent out to nets. explore it the deepest body of fresh water on the continent. The greatest depth attained by the sounding line was 2,005 feet. The party sent out by the geological survey, who was under the command of Capt D. Dutton, U. S. A., succeeded in reaching and making a complete survey. Creator lake, in Oregon, is a body of water whose shores, with the possible exception of one point on the south, have never been touched by the teet of white men. The party's boats were hauled a hundred miles by mule teams, dragged by a hats. detail of soldiers up the snow-clad sides of the range which surrounds the lake, and lowered by ropes to the water 600 teet below. One hundred and sixty soundings were made, the result or which gave the general character of the lake's bottom. Two large submerged cinder caves were found, respectively Soo and 1,200 feet high, the rest of the bottom being flat.

A Cheap Way of Doing it.

Fashion demands that when young people marry they shall go on a wedding trip, which means no small outlay of cash. A Hannibal coup le recently married, felt this pressure, but-conceived a scheme by which to thwart the process of custom and save the item of expense. They went to the depot, accompanied by a party of friends, and boarded a train with good bye said ail round, the triends extending the regulation wishes for a safe and happy tour. But the couple did not remain on the tram. Oh, no! They walked through the car and out at the end opposite of that at which they entered, and getting off at the opposite sped around to ther home, where they remained in seclusion tor a week, while friends thought
